"Visions of real depth, Clay Rice excels at his craft."
- Atlanta Journal & Constitution

After Clay fashions a child's silhouette, parents may choose to have an extra silhouette mounted inside of their child's very own copy of one of Clay's beautifully illustrated children's books, making your books a true family treasure.

Storytime

Clay's stories spring to life at each event as he reads from one of his award-winning children's books.

Children and their parents delight in Clay's "down home" style of storytelling and music, and the uncanny way in which he connects with his audience.

Don't miss this rare opportunity to schedule an event by this legendary artist, author and storyteller.
